1. We pray for our Holy Father Pope Francis, that the Holy Spirit may strengthen him to serve God’s Holy People:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

2. We pray for all governments, local, national and international, that the Holy Spirit may guide them to work together for the good of the whole human family:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

3. We pray for all who suffer from warfare and violence, especially in the Holy Land, Syria and the wider Middle East, that the Holy Spirit may grant his lasting peace and justice:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

4. We pray for our families and friends in the countries from which we originate, that the Holy Spirit may bless them and help us all to be united in love and prayer:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

5. We pray for all refugees and asylum seekers, that the Holy Spirit may help them through the generosity of others and remind us that we are all passing pilgrims in our world:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

6. We pray for all our doctors, nurses and health care workers, that the Holy Spirit may give them courage in their noble vocation:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

7. We pray for all involved in medical research, that the Holy Spirit may inspire them to find the cures needed to treat disease at all levels:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

8. We pray for all who are keeping our society going at this time, those involved with food, utilities, transport and all other front-line jobs and for all involved in education at every level, that the Holy Spirit will give them his strength:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

9. We pray for our parish community, that the Holy Spirit may bind us together more closely in unity and love so that we deepen our vocation to serve others:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

10. We pray for all our sick, especially those with COVID-19 and those affected by the pandemic in any way, mentally and physically, and those who care for them, that the Holy Spirit may grant his healing love:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

11. We pray for our faithful departed, especially those who have died from COVID-19, that the Holy Spirit may bring them to heaven with Mary, Joseph and all the saints:
Fr. Mervyn: Dominum deprecemur; All: Te rogamus, audi nos

12. We ask for the prayers of Mary, who was overshadowed by the Holy Spirit: Hail Mary

13. We offer our own intentions in silence
